

If laughter is the best medicine, then Steve Allison is the ultimate prescription.

A master of dry wit and razor-sharp timing, Steve's comedy is classic, clever, and endlessly relatable. No gimmicks, no fluff, just a mic, a spotlight, and a stream of perfectly delivered punchlines. With a voice like velvet and a stage presence that instantly puts audiences at ease, Steve's the kind of comic who can have a theatre roaring with laughter before he's even finished his second sentence.

In 2025, he's on an absolute tear with numerous corporate shows and sportsman's lunches and he is a Royal Caribbean favourite, with great seasons onboard the Quantum Of The Seas, Ovation Of The Seas, Anthem Of The Seas, and Voyager Of The Seas, as well as performing on both the Carnival Adventure and Encounter. Steve is delivering the goods across Australia, the South Pacific and beyond. No matter the crowd, no matter the stage, he brings a grounded, authentic style of comedy that never misses.

Whether you're catching him for the first time or coming back for another round, one thing's certain: when Steve Allison is on the bill, you're in for a great time.
